Priest-in-Charge
Father Cody Maynus

A few months ago, Bishop Loya emailed me and asked me to consider applying for the inaugural cohort of something called the Leader's Way at Yale Divinity School. I skimmed the website and was intrigued, but was fuzzy on the details. When a bishop asks you to do something, it is often easier to say 'yes' and ask questions later. So I filled out the application and, to my surprise, was accepted into the program.

As I mentioned, I was fuzzy on the details of the cohort. To my knowledge, this is not something that Yale has done before (which was confirmed during our orientation session.) While many seminaries are shifting their focus away from residential and accredited degree programs, Berkeley Divinity School—the Episcopal seminary within the larger divinity school—is recognizing the need to provide both traditional and non-traditional ways of forming leaders for the Church and for the world.

This inaugural cohort brought together about 50 priests and deacons from a diversity of dioceses and ministerial contexts. There were canons to the ordinary and archdeacons in our group, as well as parish priests, professors, and college chaplains. The underlying unity in the group was a firm belief that the Church's best days are still ahead of us and a commitment to leading the Church into this hopeful future.

We were housed for the week at Benjamin Franklin College, one of the newer undergraduate dorms and took most of our meals at Pauli Murray College, another undergraduate dorm named for the first Black woman to be ordained a priest in the Episcopal Church. Although the dorms were new, I was reminded very quickly that I am not 18 any longer. Several of us had to go to Target and buy pillows and mattress toppers. I might be younger than many, but I found out that I'm not young anymore!

The week consisted mostly of lectures and presentations from a very diverse group of esteemed faculty from the Divinity School, the Yale School of Medicine, the Institute for Sacred Music, the Yale University Art Gallery, and the Tsai Center for Innovative Thinking at Yale.

The workshops were:

- Truth-telling for Empowered Communities with the Rev'd Dr. Carolyn Sharp, Professor of Homiletics at YDS
- Pauli Murray's Spirituality of Risk Taking with Dr. Donyelle McCray, Assistant Professor of Homiletics at YDS
- Spirituality of Adaptive Leadership with Dr. Brandon Nappi, Executive Director of Leadership Programs and Lecturer in Homiletics
- Finding Home in God with Dr. Miroslav Volf, Henry B. Wright Professor of Systematic Theology and Founding Director of the Yale Center for Faith and Culture
- Vulnerability and Innovation: A Pilgrimage Through the Heart of the Universe and The Ups and Downs of Creation of a New Community with the Rev'd Dr. Hillary Raining, Director of the Center for Christianity Spirituality and Affiliated Professor of Ascetic and Liturgical Theology at General Theological Seminary in New York

Father Cody Maynus, continued

- Slow Looking with Dr. Felicity Harley-McGowan, taught at the Yale Art Gallery
- The Spiritual Practice of Fundraising with Kerry Robinson, Executive Partner, Leadership Roundtable and Executive Director of the Opus Prize Foundation
- Human Centered Design with Victor Padilla-Taylor and Abby Winslow, taught at the Tsai Center for Innovative Thinking and Yale
- Leading Faithful Innovation with ECMN's own the Rev'd Canon Dr Blair Pogue and the Rev'd Dr Dwight Zscheile
- Emotional Intelligence with Dr. Marc Brackett, Professor, Yale School of Medicine and Founding Director of the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence
- Leadership as an Act of Hope with the Rt Rev'd Dr Vincentia Kgabe, Bishop of Lesotho in South Africa

We were accompanied through all of this by the Very Rev'd Dr Robert Willis, KStJ, the Dean Emeritus of Canterbury and his partner Fletcher. Many may remember Fr Robert leading morning prayer from the garden of Canterbury Cathedral during the COVID-19 pandemic, kittens playfully drinking milk from a saucer at his feet. Dean Willis was an excellent spiritual guide and presided and preached at daily chapel services and the Holy Eucharist.

The cohort continues throughout the next eight months or so and culminates in a leadership project using techniques and skills gained from this program. Stay tuned for more information on that!

I'm very grateful for the opportunity to have attended this week in New Haven (thanks, in part, to funding from Bishop Loya and my continuing education budget here at All Saints.) It's no small thing to get a bunch of priests together in a room during the summer and an even more impressive thing to have every single one of us leaving with more hope for a brighter future.

As ever, please let me know if I can be praying for you in any particular way. I've been here seven months now and it feels like home! I'm grateful for each of you.

Peace,
Fr. Cody

Junior Warden
Laura Kay Allen

Before I began as the junior warden, it was determined that the position would be split several ways. I would be providing leadership to administrative items that have traditionally been connected to a Junior Warden position in the Episcopal Church. I was also to be the main contacts with our sexton, Dave McGuire, and contractors, vendors, and agencies. Finally, I would be helping these folks with these things:

Joe Peterson - Building and Grounds

Bob and Rhonda Rowe - Major Building Projects and Capital Projects

Pam Middleton and Elizabeth Campbell - Exterior Landscape/Garden Club

Whenever possible, we use Northfield/local contractors to support our community. Some of the work that we do requires us to use partners outside of Northfield. We are grateful to all the individuals and companies that keep our physical plant safe and up and running!

This summer I have either had inspections done or have them scheduled as follows:

Fire Extinguisher Services - A complete inspection took place the first week in June. Our kitchen fire extinguisher was replaced to meet new code requirements.

Fire Alarm Notification Systems - In early June, all our fire alarms were examined and met the expectations of Bruce Henning of Henning Fire Protection Equipment. Since we have a new priest and junior warden, we also updated the "call list" in case an emergency were to take place.

Fire Suppression (Sprinklers) - This check-up will take place in August.

State of Minnesota Elevator Inspection - This inspection was unannounced and completed in June. We found out we needed to repair/replace the elevator ceiling lights. A huge thank you to Dave Moening Electric (Northfield) who donated LED lights and his time to All Saints. Thank you, Dave for a job well done!

Schindler Elevator - Our annual inspection of the elevator will take place in July.

A/C Annual Check - Josh from Keith Pumper Plumbing and Heating checked all our air conditioning units on one of the many hot days we had in June. We are so grateful to Keith Pumper and Josh for the excellent attention to our A/C and furnace needs!

If you have any questions or concerns, please connect with me at 612-363-8565 or laurakaya@yahoo.com. Thank you!

Update on Special Building Projects

Submitted by Rhonda Rowe

Just a quick word to let you know where our special projects stand right now.

- Roof over sanctuary – insurance claim has been awarded to re-roof this area. We have contracted with Millersberg Construction and you should see that work soon.
- South exterior wall – we are working with Jarrod at River City Builders. There is the stained-glass window work that needs to be coordinated with the residing. This is going to take a little longer than the roof, but progress is being made.
- Youth room – several of us met and have had input for the youth room. Pam is in contact with Bierman's for the flooring and getting bids for the painting. Our date for completion is September first. We are on track to achieve this plan.

If you have any questions about any of this work, please contact Bob and Rhonda Rowe who are working with the contractors, or either of the wardens, Laura Kay Allen and Mark Heiman.

Focus on Operations- Building/Room Reservations

Submitted by Pam Middleton and Betsy Brandt

As you have read in the May issue of the Connections newsletter, the vestry is trying a new organizational model for All Saints. There are several "Ministry Teams" with a leader who will oversee the team's activities and responsibilities. One such team is the Operations Team, with Betsy Brandt as the team leader. Betsy will not necessarily handle each of the duties listed, but will ensure that they are taken care of (email, phone, mail, etc). One of the responsibilities that falls under Operations is that of Building/Room Reservations.

As the All Saints building gets busier, we are planning on creating an online space reservation system. Until that gets up and running, please let Betsy Brandt know if you need to reserve an area in All Saints for a group activity or event (please provide date, timeframe, specific space needed, anticipated attendance). You can talk with her or email her at admin@allsaintsnorthfield.org (this is an email created for the Operations wing of All Saints).

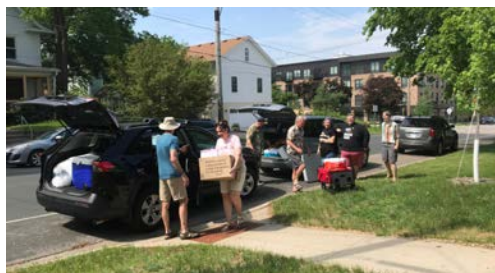

American Red Cross Blood Drive

Speaking of Building Use, All Saints hosted another Red Cross Blood Drive on June 16! Thank you once again to Kate, Kalie and Melody Ford and their Girl Scout troops for bring this opportunity to All Saints! Thank you to everyone who was able to donate blood; there is a huge need!

PRIDE IN THE PARK JUNE 3

Thank you to everyone who helped with the All Saints Pride Booth, from hauling everything to the park, to setting up, to hosting the booth, to volunteering as a de-escalator! Special thanks to Deacon Cassandra, and Mark and Rebecca Krug for their leadership. The raffle on Saturday and the Silent Auction on Sunday were a huge success!

IN MEMORIAM

All Saints lost our beloved friend, Bob Will, who passed away surrounded by family on Sunday, June 25 at the Northfield Retirement Community at the age of 95. Bob will be greatly missed. Please keep Bob and his family in your prayers. If you would like to send a note to Leslie and Zachary, their information is in the parish directory.

Leslie and her sister, Jennifer, are planning a memorial service for Bob at All Saints on Saturday, August 26 at 2:00pm with visitation one hour before.

The All Saints Re-Resurrected Women's Group

On Thursday, June 29, the All Saints Re-Resurrected women's Group gathered at the church for food, friendship and fellowship. The evening was purely social- no committees were formed, no recruitment to ministries took place! 17 women gathered (not all pictured here) and simply enjoyed making new friends and deepening existing friendships!

Fr. Cody stopped by as we were getting ready and gave us his blessing!

Thank you to Joe Peterson for his continued care of our lawns; he reports that he enjoys the new electric mower!

Episco-Speak

A Guide to the Language of Episcopalians

Submitted by James Young

You say you don't know your apse from your clerestory? Well, don't despair! Help is here. Each month I will attempt to dazzle you with my command of the vocabulary of Anglicans and Episcopalians. If there is some term or concept about which you want to learn more, I will also take requests. Please contact me!!

This month: The Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral (No, it's not a trick football play!)

The Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral is a four-point articulation of Anglican identity, often cited as encapsulating the fundamentals of the Communion's doctrine and as a reference-point for ecumenical discussion with other Christian denominations. The document is found on page 876 in your Book of Common Prayer. The four points are:

1. The Holy Scriptures, as containing all things necessary to salvation;
2. The Creeds (specifically, the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds), as the sufficient statement of Christian faith;
3. The Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion;
4. The historic episcopate, locally adapted.

The Quadrilateral had its genesis in an 1870 essay by an American Episcopal priest, William Reed Huntington. Huntington's purpose in proposing these four elements was to establish "a basis on which approach may be by God's blessing, made toward Home Reunion," ie., with the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches.

Next Month: catholic

Stay tuned for another thrilling installment of Episco-Speak!

Jesus Encounters

Submitted by Fletcher Coolidge

What I have to offer is a series of dramatic monologues where I tried to imagine myself back into the first century and then into an encounter with Jesus (or a situation involving Jesus) without 2,000 years of dogma, theology, history, etc., to fall back on when interpreting the situation. Or, in other words, what would it have been like to encounter Jesus with no preconceived notions (except, maybe what you had heard at the marketplace or in the temple or some such place)? The attitudes of my protagonists may not be politically correct, but they are my attempt to be as accurate as possible in portraying real people, seen through the wrong end of the telescope.

GADARENE RUSH

Luke 8:26-39

Well, there I was, you see,
Sitting and talking
To this total stranger –
With a feeling of freedom,
Of terrible danger removed –

And we were talking, he and I,
About God, and Love,
And demons, and pigs –
Someone said
(There were lots of people
Standing around)

That "the demons all fled yelling
And then there was a scrum
And a lot of dust
Flying around the pig herd
And the pigs all galloped
Over the edge and into the drink."

I don't know about all that,
But there were a lot of dead pigs
Down on the beach
And they said
(The people, I mean)

That someone
Had gone for the owner
And wouldn't he be mad!
And somebody else said
"Shhhsh!" like that was
The wrong thing to say.

And all the time, in this hush,
The stranger and I talked.
After a while I looked down
At my clothes and said
"Where did I get these clothes?
I don't remember these!"

Then I remembered my sister
Putting clothes on me
When I was about four,
But nothing since then.

The stranger sort of half-smiled
And said, "That's all right.
You don't want to remember
What came between.
Are you hungry?"

And I realized
That I was.
