Title: Canticum 20, Glory to God: Gloria in excelsis
 Music: William Mathias (1934-1992)

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Lesson

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

Genesis 1:1–2:4a

And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.”

So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The cantor will sing the antiphon once; the congregation joins the second time and as indicated.

- 1 O LORD our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!—
- 2 you whose glory is chanted above the heavens out of the mouths of infants and children;
you have set up a fortress against your enemies,
to silence the foe and avenger. Antiphon
- 3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 4 what are mere mortals that you should be mindful of them,
human beings that you should care for them?
- 5 Yet you have made them little less than divine;
with glory and honor you crown them.
- 6 You have made them rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet:
- 7 all flocks and cattle,
even the wild beasts of the field,
- 8 the birds of the air, the fish of the sea,
and whatever passes along the paths of the sea.
- 9 O LORD our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth! Antiphon

Lesson

2 Corinthians 13:11–13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

BCP 360

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

The Lord's Prayer

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion of the People

We welcome all who wish to come to the Lord's Table. Please wait for the usher to invite you to come forward; if you need to receive the sacrament at your seat, tell the usher and it will be brought to you at the end of the distribution. At the altar rail, extend your hands to receive the bread, then the server will offer you the cup of wine (please touch it and guide it to your mouth). Please do not dip your bread in the cup. You may also choose to receive only the bread — the sacrament is complete even if you only receive one element. If you prefer to receive a blessing, simply cross your forearms over your chest.

Tara Alaniz (daughter of Gretchen Grey) and Liz Campbell (daughter of Erika and Robb Campbell and granddaughter of Elizabeth and Tom Campbell), are graduating from Northfield High School on June 7. Liz's graduation party is at Keepsake Cidery (4609 135th St E. Dundas) today from 12:30 to 4:30.

This Sunday is our seminarian Paul Johnson's last day with us. We give thanks to Paul for all of the ways he has been a part of the life of this Parish over the last school year and wish him well as he moves forward in his formation toward ordination. Thanks to Joan Ennis, Fletcher Coolidge, Stephanie Ennis, and Lisa McDermott who served as Paul's Companion Team during his internship.

This Sunday is a "Fifth Sunday"! All loose offerings in the plate are designated for the Rector's Discretionary Fund which is used by Fr. Cody to support the needs of the community. You may also write a check to All Saints with Discretionary Fund on the memo line if you wish to contribute to the fund in this way.

We welcome any Oles who are back this weekend for reunion!

Northfield's Pride celebration is next Saturday, June 6 in Central Park. Please talk with Gretchen Grey if you are interested in helping out! There is also a sign-up sheet on the credenza in the Commons.

In-person Safe Church training is scheduled for Friday, June 12 from 1-5pm. Please let Betsy Brandt or Fr. Cody know if you plan on attending. We want to make sure we have enough people interested to have the training session.

Carleton College will once again hold their huge "garage sale" event called Lighten Up on June 19 and 20. This effort relies on many community volunteers to help make it a success each year. Resources generated through this incredible process directly support organizations in our community, including Northfield Union of Youth (NUY) – The Key, Wall Flower House, and now The Lock, NUY's new youth resource center. Please consider volunteering at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C054FA9AE2FA3FCCF8-64050123-2026>. If you have any questions, contact Rebecca Krug at rebeccakrugart.com. Thank you so much for your support of our youth and community!

Faiz, Ben, Agnes, and Brady are on tour in France with the St. Olaf organ studio. Check the bulletin board for photographs of their journey.

Thank you to those who do things around the church quietly & often unnoticed. Two of our parishioners come in to clean the Sanctuary on a regular basis! They do the "extras" that our Sexton doesn't have the time to do. Someone recently replenished our tea supply. Someone brought in coffee to-go cups. Things like this happen all the time! Thank you...you are appreciated!

LAST CHANCE: We are working on a Spring 2026 All Saints Directory. Please take the time to look at the draft on the credenza in the Commons to verify all information for your household. Thank you!

Celebrating their birthdays this week are Liz Berry, 6/3; Fletcher Coolidge, 6/4; Eleanor Heiman, 6/5; Oliver Heiman, 6/5; Dan Gudbjartson, 6/5 and Larry Archbold, 6/7. Best wishes to all!
